

World-Class Enterprise Training

Best-In-Class Certificate Training for Healthcare Organizations, Meetings, and Leadership Events

Your audience is looking for a Return on Investment

Audiences are faced with dozens of options when it comes to events and meetings. Today they are demanding a return on their time and money investment. The biggest trends in meetings and events are Certificate Training. This trend provides attendees the opportunity to advance their skills and their career. We have partnered with LearnLogic®, a leader in workforce development training. Correspondingly, we have developed high content density training programs that allow for Certification Training to occur in just 1 to 2 hours. These programs are also available virtually, and live virtually. It is important to know that all of these programs are 100% customized in order to meet the specific needs of your audience and prevailing trends.

Lucid Leadership™ Boot Camp

Our Lucid Leadership™ bootcamp is a powerful one to two hour workshop that provides actionable tools that leaders can use to lead in a time of hyper-complexity. The curriculum is based on years of research, and is customized for each audience. Program includes course material, testing and certification/certificate.

Executive/Leadership Roundtables and Strategic Facilitation

Our Certified Management Consultants provide Facilitated Executive Leadership Sessions that deliver actionable results. We customize our Leadership Roundtables, and Ideation Sessions to address the unique and special challenges, and opportunities of each organization. These Five-Star programs deliver a tremendous return on investment for your attendees.

Presentation and Communication Skill Training

Our Certified Impactful Communicator™ (CIC) training program provides professional presentation skills and professional business communication skills. This is a perfect program for events that are looking to provide communication skills to their non-professional speakers. The program is also customized as a certificate workshop for events that provide certificates in areas of key importance to their attendees. Program includes course material, testing and certification/certificate.

Certified Impactful Communicator (CIC™)
